

Q98 ROCKS

LEX AND TERRY – MORNINGS 5AM-10AM

Lex and Terry bring their own unique show to Fargo-Moorhead. Their listeners call in frequently looking for advice and play along with whatever “The Givers” are doing. Regular features on The Lex and Terry Morning Show include, “60 Seconds in the Street,” “Lex and Terry of Hollywood,” and “The Mental Challenge.” The ONLY way to get prepared for that long day of work or school, wake up with Lex and Terry on Q98!

GUNNER - MID-DAYS 10AM-2PM

Gunner is the newest member of the Q98 Crew comes from Illinois and is excited to be in the Fargo-Moorhead area! Gunner’s sense of humor is one where he will say what you are thinking but he knows that you are too afraid to say it. He often calls random places looking to stir up a little bit of trouble, such as the White House & his own mom’s house! Regular features include “Rock At Work Lunch Hour” & “The Grunge Plunge.”

ABOUT GUNNER:

Gunner got his start in radio while attending Columbia College in Chicago. He interned at Q101 before graduating and moving on to his first “real” radio job in Kenosha, Wisconsin. After a year, he worked in radio in Waterloo, Iowa before heading to La Crosse, Wisconsin where he rocked overnights for almost 2 years.

SPARKS - AFTERNOONS 2PM-7PM

Sparks’ high energy & humor caters to the younger audience & entertains those who have worked hard all day & need a release on their way home. His wild sense of humor makes his phone and feature intensive show a favorite among drive-time listeners. Regular features include “Q98 Goes Postal” (4pm), & “Six o’clock Six-Pack”

ABOUT SPARKS:

Sparks comes from the shores of Lake Erie. Even though the city of Cleveland doesn’t scream “entertainment,” it is still cool enough to have radio stations. Sparks quickly learned that radio is his path. Working every trivial job at a station, Sparks knows what it takes to get where he is. His relatable personality creates a unique environment when combined with his phone and feature intensive show.

NOMI - EVENINGS 7P-MID

Nomi, the ONLY female on Q98, but can rock out just as hard as the boys. Nomi is fun, personable and highly relatable to her audience. Being on at night, she runs a very phone intensive/caller interactive show. She’s the one to go to, to rock out and have a great time at night after a hard day or even to get the night started. Nomi starts her show with Mandatory Metallica, giving her listeners 3 Metallica songs every weeknight.

ABOUT NOMI:

Nomi comes from Chicago, where she developed her acute passion for radio. Working at her college station, Columbia College Chicago, and interning at 103-5 Kiss-FM. Quickly, moving to Fargo-Moorhead to give her all to Q98 Rocks’ scene!!!
